FAMOUS WRITER BOOSTS HAWAII

Franklin Writes That He Is Still Talking Of Islands

H. P. Wood of the Promotion Committee has received the following letter from Franklin Matthews, the New York Sun's correspondent who accompanied the Battleship Fleet on its tour of the world:

My dear Mr. Wood:—The collection of photographs which you so kindly forwarded, arrived a few days ago to my great delight. I am very grateful to you for your kindness.

Everywhere I speak I find that there is intense interest in Hawaii. The place has such a hold on my soul that I find it difficult to switch from the topic when I get on it. In every talk I have given I have advised anyone who could afford it to go and see it. I have called it Dreamland and all the other fine things it really is and am booming it constantly. I'll bet I am the most efficient member of the Promotion Club that you have on the mainland.

I am going to give pictures with my lectures in the fall. Up to now I have just been talking, talking and with great success. I expect to make a complete tour of the country next winter. I'll boost you folks all I can; depend upon that.

I have been making much of the native singing. Could you send me a picture of a group of these singers with their instruments in their hands, etc., and out of doors? I'd prefer all men in it. I'd like also a picture of a native beauty with a lei around her neck. If also you can get a picture or two of the Palii, like it and one of a pineapple plantation. Put it all down to advertising.

Some day I hope to get back among you all when there will be no whirl. We got home in fine condition, but it has been mighty hard to settle down to cold, hard labor again.

With many thanks and with delightful memories, I am,
Most cordially yours,
(Signed) FRANKLIN MATTHEWS.
